

A Winter Wonderland

Dimondale's Annual Christmas Party celebrated another year of joy and excitement. Since the beginning, the party has always been about bringing together the youth, colleagues and family to share the holiday spirit.

This year's Christmas Party was held on December 7, 2014 at the Reef in Long Beach, CA. With fun and lively performances from our employee's and residents, singing holiday songs, it was very easy to get in to the holiday spirit. Other special music was brought to us by the DJ and a special guest performance by up and coming R&B artist Jaime.

Throughout the afternoon surprise awards were given for Resident of the Year and Employee of the year. Raffle winners left with awesome gift cards and movie tickets to enjoy with friends and family.

Although some things may have changed over the years, others have stayed just the way they were—youth's eyes beaming with excitement, colleagues introducing their families to one another, past employees reuniting and management expressing their appreciation to all for a year's hard work.

Thank you to this year's Christmas party coordinator, Erica Coleman for an incredible turn out and a special thank you to our guest host, DeMira Pierre of 102.3 KJLH.

Best wishes for the New Year!

Activities

Continuing with the holiday spirit, the girls participated in the city's holiday celebration in Lancaster on Lancaster Blvd. They had cookie and hot chocolate booths, snow for sledding, Christmas ornament making, visits with Santa. The girls also made cookies and ornaments to take to an assisted living facility and blessing bags that were passed out to the homeless at the Los Angeles Mission for the holiday season.
